non-bailable offence and therefore the Applicant approaches this Hon'ble Court for releasing him on bail in the event of his arrest (anticipatory bail) on the following amongst many others grounds, which are pleaded without prejudice to one another:

GROUND

1. That the Applicant is innocent and he is falsely implicated in the alleged offence. He has nothing to do with the alleged offence.
2. That assuming the allegations made by the prosecution true for the sake of argument, the incident occurred in such situation that it can be seen that there was neither any motive nor intention to kill the complainant and as such the present applicant cannot be said to have committed an offence punishable u/s. 307 of I.P.C.
3. That the Complainant is residing at Apte Wadi and whereas the accused Applicant are residing at Navin Shinde Wadi and considering the distance, there was no reason for the complainant to come near the residence of the Applicant at about 2:00 a.m. and that itself shows the mala fide intentions of the complainant.
4. That the complainant was admitted in hospital from 15/9/2022 to 26/9/2022 and he has been discharged from the hospital and even injuries sustained by him are not serious. That apart from the alleged weapons of assault and the mobile has been recovered and as such the presence of the applicant for custodial interrogation is not necessary.
5. That no overt act whatsoever has been attributed to the present applicant

6. That taking in to consideration the totality of the circumstance by no stretch of imagination it can be said that the applicant can be held guilty of the offence punishable u/s. 307 of I.P.C. punishable with death or imprisonment for life.
7. That the Applicant is residing at the address mentioned herein above, along with his family and as such he will not abscond anywhere if he is released on bail.

10. That offence u/s. 354 of IPC is registered against the Complainant and it was the Applicant's sister in law, who made a phone call to the Police for informing the said incident to police and only on the basis of phone call made by her, the Police visited the spot.
11. That as per the observation of medical officer, the complainant sustained the injury due to blunt object and it falsifies the allegation of the complainant that the injury was caused by a sharp edged weapon and considering the nature and place of injury the allegations made by the complainant that he was assaulted from the back side are apparently false and on the contrary it support the story narrated by Ms. Varsha.

12. That the Applicants craves leave to add, alter or amend any of the ground aforesaid.
13. That the accused Applicants are ready and willing to furnish reasonable surety that this Hon'ble court deem fit.
14. That the Applicant is ready and willing to abide by the terms and conditions put by this Hon'ble court, if he is released on anticipatory bail.
15. That the accused Applicant will not misuse the liberty and will not tamper the evidence.
16. That there are no criminal antecedents against the Applicant.
17. No other application is filed in Supreme Court or any other Court regarding the Subject matter.

In the circumstances aforesaid the Applicants prays that,
